

Session 2 – Discipline that Shapes the Heart

I. Discipline and Discipleship

A. Proverbs 6:23 and Proverbs 19:18

B. Parenting on two levels - the "what" and the "why"

II. The essential ingredient of heart connection

A. Proverbs 23:24-26

B. The "giving of the heart"

C. Proverbs 4:20

D. Hearts are not demanded, they are "wooned" and won.

III. How proper boundaries can create peace (for you and your kids)

IV. Anger - the destroyer of heart connection

A. Anger is often the primary issue, which needs to be addressed before other matters can be dealt with.

B. Ephesians 4:26-27

C. Anger is coming from within, not without.

D. The example of Cain and Abel - Genesis 4

IV. Navigating "passive rebellion" - when we have a right action but a bad attitude.

A. The destructive power of anger during discipline

B. Is yelling the only thing that "works?"

C. Should we ever apologize to our children?

V. There are no consequences which will build virtue in your children. Spiritual input (family worship) is far more important.
